About trainer

George Wall
Managing Director of Asgard
Project Solutions and a practising Expert Witness

George Wall advises clients internationally on dispute resolution, project and programme delivery, project turnaround, contractual and commercial risks and due diligence. He has over 20 years' experience, with a focus on heavy infrastructure, oil and gas, and mining and buildings throughout Asia, the Middle East, Europe and Africa.

George has a technical background and significant ongoing practical experience of both domestic and major international projects. This includes working with employers and contractors on the efficient planning and management of multi-billion dollar multi-disciplinary projects from inception through to final completion. George has extensive experience of the development and review of delay claims, assessment of project progress, programmes and supporting documentation to establish the extent of delays, disruption, and acceleration.

HOURS

Overview

When a construction project is delayed or disrupted or disputed, it is crucial to the proposed management of a construction project to understand the loss and expenses incurred from such events.

This one-day foundation course will enable the participants to deal with loss and expense procedure when managing construction projects. The course emphasises practical instruction and its real-world application.

Expect to learn from interactive series of presentation supported by in-depth group discussions with case studies and exercises that allow you to apply the new theory and concepts in real-life.

PEB: 6 PDUs; BOA-SIA: 2 CPD Accreditation Points; SPM: 6 CPD points; SISV (QS division): 4.5 CPD hours
