REDAS Press Release

REDAS MOURNS THE PASSING OF MR LEE KUAN YEW

REDAS and its members join the people of Singapore in mourning the passing of the late Mr Lee Kuan Yew.

Mr Lee was a far-sighted statesman and an outstanding leader who served his country selflessly and with deep commitment for the well being of the people of Singapore. He was ahead of his times in a rapidly globalizing world. In both domestic and foreign policies, Mr Lee was relentless in ensuring the long term survival and viability of Singapore as a nation. Today, Singaporeans enjoy first world standards of living and we stand as a highly respected nation to be emulated by other countries.

For his unparalleled leadership and unwavering contributions to the nation, Mr Lee will always remain dear to our hearts.

Members of REDAS express their deepest condolences and share this great loss with the family of the late Mr Lee Kuan Yew.
